

ST. STEPHEN'S SPIRIT

The Newsletter of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, Wilkinsburg PA

NOVEMBER 2021

On December the 1st at 10:30 in the morning an older tradition here at St. Stephen's is being resurrected. Father Chuck is opening the church for the service of Morning Prayer for all who would like to join in. I believe this mid-week prayer service started long ago because folks felt the need for a mid-week spiritual pick up. The time of day may have been different in the past-closer to peoples' lunch hour-but always in the church on Wednesday. Think of this service as another Bible study but a Bible study happening in an Episcopal liturgy.

So how does it work? Someone who is attending has taken on the responsibility of mapping out the bible verses and the Psalms. Where do you find these? Our wonderful Book of Common Prayer has in the back something called the Daily Office. Match the week of the year with the day of the week, and you have the readings for Wednesday. The service on December 1st will be lead by someone who has done this before. Oh, something really important...there is no sermon to prepare for. Instead we discuss the readings together. Easy, peasy!

Why am I so happy that Morning Prayer on Wednesdays is coming back? When I retired I was facing a very difficult time. My two best men were very sick, and I was struggling. A very wise person who I wish you all could meet invited me. It was because of this mid-week service that I became good friends with Guion and Edgar Taylor. It became a venue for me to ask for prayer for my loved ones and for myself. The best thing was, and hopefully will be, that nothing one says is outrageous or too anything.

Come join me on December the 1st at 10:30 a.m. I'll be in the choir stalls waiting.

- Beth Hardie

Mission of the Month:
SHEPHERD'S HEART

Shepherd's Heart Fellowship serves men and women who are poor, vulnerable and homeless. They run a drop in-center which serves food, a resource center that provides needed clothing and toiletries, worship services each Sunday which conclude with a fellowship meal, and a shuttle bus which gets folks to their appointments. They have been working overtime during the pandemic to help those who couldn't stay home because they have no home. If you would like to donate, you can write a check to Shepherd's Heart and put it in the donation box or access the link below.
